Dear Students and Families,

Fraternal and sororal organizations' deep connection to a university as well as their inherent influence creates opportunity for these organizations to drive the conversation and forward progress of university initiatives and overall civic engagement. Directing this potential toward mutually beneficial outcomes for both students and the university underscore the charge of those in leadership of our organizations.

Purpose, passion, siblinghood defines the unique experience of membership in a fraternity or sorority. I say this because it is important to know and understand the purpose of the organizations for which you are members. Knowing this, believing this will cause you to hold up the values of your organization, and be inclined to support your fellow brothers, sisters, and siblings.

Some of you are just starting out your college careers. Some of you nearing the end of your college experience. Regardless, you all will share a common experience in that you will represent something larger than yourselves. Therefore, I implore you to attack this experience with passion. Give all that you are able. Volunteer before you are asked. Do the right thing though it may not be popular. Everything you do has the possibility to impact your organization: good or bad. Passion is about your ability to see the larger picture and figure out how you fit into that picture. You make the letters; the letters don’t make you. How will you use your time and talents to amplify the positive impact of your fraternity or sorority? I am excited to see what this will be!

There will be times that your sisters or brothers will make you mad, there will be times that you all cry, there will be times where you laugh and have fun. The most important thread though all this though is that you do it together. Sisterhood and brotherhood do not happen overnight. You must work at it. You must be willing to be vulnerable. You must be willing to be open to new experiences and people you would have never engaged with before. You must be selfless.

My membership in my sorority has brought me lifelong friends and opened career and educational opportunities. I still attend chapter meetings and volunteer opportunities. I still pay dues and participate in the business of my sorority. My membership and participation in my sorority is a lifelong commitment. I hope that you all are prepared to commit yourselves to that as well.

Sisterhood or brotherhood is not confined to any physical space or the ability to be in person. It is the embodiment of love, support, and care that spans time and space.

Sincerely,

ShirDonna Y. Lawrence - Associate Director, Fraternity and Sorority Life Programs

Iowa Fraternity and Sorority Life connects its members to the largest and most successful support network available to Hawkeye students. Our alumni are positioned all over the globe and are committed to helping us succeed as professionals and as members of a productive society.

Iowa is proud to host two of the "Divine Nine" historically African-American fraternities and sororities on campus. Each chapter will individually announce its membership selection/intake process in the Fall semester.

NPHC sororities and fraternities present information about their individual chapters for prospective members in their own recruitment format. NPHC organizations typically do not accept a student for membership until the student has completed at least 12-24 hours of college credit with a minimum grade point average.

Hawkeye Service Break is an annual service trip each spring semester. A group of fraternity and sorority members travels to Indianapolis, IN to engage in a service immersion experience. This trip coincides with a three credit hour course focused on service-learning and social justice. While in Indianapolis, the students have the opportunity to engage with community members firsthand and visit inter/national fraternity/sorority headquarters.

Order of Omega is a national Fraternity and Sorority Honor Society for the top 3% of fraternity and sorority members based on the tenets of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Order of Omega’s purposes are to recognize students who have attained a high standard of leadership within the community, to bring together those members who will help shape the community and the University, and to join faculty, alumni, and students with the intent of helping and understanding one another.

The Divine Nine plots at the University of Iowa are near the Danforth Chapel in Hubbard Park, a place of significance for some of the chapters of NPHC. The plots were dedicated in the Fall of 2016 to celebrate the rich history of Black Greek lettered organizations at UI. Historically, plots are spaces on campus where chapter members congregate, celebrate, and give fellowship to one another.

Stepping and Strolling is an expressive dance form that was created by African American fraternities in the 1970s. NPHC members move together in a line expressing pride for their organization. In this line, members may show this pride using their organization’s call, sign or historical information, ritual/custom dances, etc. All of this is done through movements that are unique to each organization.
FSL Leadership Class
meets each spring semester. Our Fraternity and Sorority Life Staff and campus partners teach a three-credit leadership class for fraternity and sorority students. Discussion topics and assignments are geared specifically toward leaders with the Fraternity and Sorority Community.

The University of Iowa Dance Marathon
The University of Iowa Dance Marathon has been providing emotional and financial support for children with cancer and their families since 1994. To date, Dance Marathon has raised over 30 million dollars. The Fraternity and Sorority Community plays a vital role in the success of Dance Marathon each year. In fact, members of the Fraternity and Sorority Community were responsible for starting the organization.

EDUCATION

Orientation
This year, all those looking to join the FSL community must attend New Member Orientation to learn about the opportunities and responsibilities of membership. Each council has their set orientation dates, so check out fsl.uiowa.edu to find out when your orientation will be this semester. Attendance is a requirement of those looking to join any chapter.

New Member Academy
The New Member Academy is a 6 part, module based, educational opportunity introducing the five topic areas that a student can expect to receive consistent education on throughout their time as a member. These topic areas include academic achievement, health and safety, diversity, equity and inclusion, involvement and leadership opportunities, and bystander intervention. This academy is required for all new members and is meant to serve as an educational foundation for their following years in the community.

ANTI-HAZING POLICY

All fraternities and sororities at the University of Iowa are non-hazing organizations. The University of Iowa also has a zero tolerance policy for hazing and all student organizations will be held accountable accordingly. More information about the University’s position on hazing can be found here:

dos.uiowa.edu/policies/discipline-of-registered-student-organizations
The fraternity and sorority experience is an investment in your student's future. Fraternal organizations' fees go to programs and services that will positively impact your student. To assist members, chapters may offer various scholarships and grants. We encourage your students to ask questions related to finances during the recruitment process. We also encourage you to be "hands-on" in this decision if you have any questions about the financial obligations. Costs will vary if the organization does or does not have a house/living structure.

For 2021-2022, the average cost of living in a university-owned residence hall per year for a double room and unlimited meals is $11,780.00.
