Delta Delta Delta has given our daughter Taylor many opportunities to excel. She has grown in confidence, leadership skills, and attention to responsibilities, something every parent dreams of seeing when they send their child off to college. Sorority life has provided Taylor a broader outlook on life, has helped her plan for the future and encouraged the development of lifelong friendships. In the past few years, Taylor has grown into an incredible young woman and we couldn't be more proud of her. She has drive and passion in everything she does. We're so thankful that Tri Delta has been there to support her and help her flourish at the University of Iowa.
