    - Recipients need to be attending the University of Iowa in the Fall 2019 semester.
    - Since the amount that these tests cost is a range from $200-$300, the maximum amount that the individual scholarships will cover is $305.
    - The scholarships will only cover the amount that the test costs, no additional money will be given. So, for example, if the recipient were taking the GRE, which costs $205, they would - only be reimbursed for $205.

    - This scholarship will be counted as "income" (tax purposes, just so applicants are aware), and is coming from the university, there is a chance it may affect your financial aid. If you are concerned, please contact the financial aid office
