

CODE OF ETHICS:

We, as Undergraduate members of women's fraternities, strive to uphold our pillars of scholarship, leadership, friendship and charity by following our bylaws as well as the UNANIMOUS AGREEMENTS of the National Panhellenic Conference. We promise to do our part as assets to our community at the University of Iowa and the greater Iowa City community.

We will operate under the tenets of mutual respect, confidentiality, unified progress and integrity. We maintain high expectations of ourselves and our fellow women by promoting self-governance, transparent communication and service to all.

We promise to establish strong relationships across chapters and councils and leave behind a legacy of kindness rather than competition.

We, as Panhellenic women of The University of Iowa also agree on and commit to:

- Uphold and demonstrate the Panhellenic spirit in thought, word and action through our chapters as well as individual members.
- Demonstrate ethical behavior and conduct ourselves in a manner consistent with the mission and values of the College Panhellenic, each inter/national organization and our institution.
- Avoid disparaging remarks about any sorority or collegiate woman and refrain from discussing Panhellenic matters with nonmembers, in accordance with the dignity and good manners of sorority women.
- Promote superior scholarship as a basis for intellectual achievement.
- Promote Panhellenic unity above the individual gain of our own chapter.
- Abide by all local and federal laws and NPC inter/national member organization bylaws.
- Hold ourselves to a high moral standard and will conduct our behavior in a way that reflects our Panhellenic values.
- Hold one another accountable to these standards, remembering at all times that we represent not only our individual chapters but also the Panhellenic community as a whole.

We commit ourselves to adhere to this code of ethics daily and to let the values outlined within it guide the women of our Greek community as morally sound, socially excellent, and exceptionally responsible persons.
