- February will be the Month of the Scholar! This is a month dedicated to encouraging and rewarding successful academics. Throughout the month there will be different events to encourage academic success throughout the PHC and FSL community! By participating in events, members will get points. The PHC chapter with the most points will have food brought to their chapter structure/location of preference. Points will be awarded for attendance at study parties and educationals, number of members found studying in LIB/IMU, and number of members that join Order of Omega and Rho Lambda. Points will also be averaged out by the total number of members in that chapter, so size isn't a factor!
 - Today-legislative meeting: Kick off and recognition for the fall 2017 chapter scholars
 - Mon/Tues Feb. 5th and 6th -Evenings: Start off the month SWEET! Wear your letters to the IMU or Library and study with your friends, if we see you, we'll give you a hurts donut!
 - Feb. 5th -noon: Rho Lambda applications due
 - Feb 7th -11:59pm: Order of Omega applications are due
 - Feb. 12th - 7pm- W55 Chemistry Building: Academic Resources: What the University Has to Offer
 - Join us for an education to learn about the different academic resources on campus. This educational is highly recommended for members on academic probation or who are struggling with classes and grades
 - Feb. 19th -7pm- W55 Chemistry Building: Relaxation Techniques and Its Effects on Stress Management
 - Come learn how to manage stress by participating in relaxation exercises! This educational will be a relaxing break from studying, while meeting your educational credit!
 - Feb. 20th -7-10pm- 215 Phillips Hall: Come study with and get to know some other members of the FSL community!
 - Feb. 27th - 7-10pm- 215 Phillips Hall: Come study with and get to know some other members of the FSL community!
